Term –II Exam Circular X & XII

Dear Parents,

Term-II examination session 2021-22 for classes X & XII are beginning from Wednesday 27 April 2022. Following are the instructions for students while coming to take examination.

- 1. Students will come in proper summer school uniform with identity card.
- 2. Students are to wear mask, carry aadhar card & hand rub, board roll number, blue pen and other requirements as mentioned in the admit card (read carefully). Use a transparent pouch to carry material.
3. Please ensure, students do not carry any objectionable material with them. If found with anyone, UMC will be registered and law will take its own course. MLZ school will not support any unethical practice.
4. If students want to avail school's transport facility to and from exam centre, they can avail. Students need to report to school at school time ie 08:00 hrs latest(if coming on their own). They would be taken to the exam centre by the school by school transport and brought back accordingly after exam. Students may board the school transport for coming going(back home) from the school. One way usage is not permitted.
5. Students would be sitting at a common allotted place in the school till they depart for examination. After returning from exam centre also, they would be made sit at an allotted place and would be allowed to move after school is over.
6. One escort teacher will accompany the students to the exam centre and will stay there in the centre, on duty. Students may contact him/her in case of any issue (if so).
7. Students are expected to be at their best behavior while in the exam centre.

I hope all must have worked very hard and will come up with flying colours.

Wish you all the best !!!
